Class Overview

This course is designed to provide an intense study for those who may be considering art as a career. Students interested in majoring in graphic design, architecture, interior design, fashion animation, art education, photography, industrial design, fine art, etc. need this class to prepare their portfolio for college entrance. Students who are serious and want to advance their skills are welcome. There are assigned projects which are more involved and on a larger scale. Time is provided for the student to propose independent projects
